

New policy brief on NCD co-morbidities: spotlight on osteoporosis

Language Undefined

© Shutterstock

NCDs share common risk factors and challenges in care, and can be effectively addressed through an integrated response.

In the first policy brief of a new series, the NCD Alliance and the International Osteoporosis Foundation focus on reasons for increased prevalence of osteoporosis in people living with other NCDs, especially diabetes and cancer, and how to reduce the risk of fracture.

Download the policy brief via the link below.

Post Date: Tuesday, 6 December, 2016

Category - News: Announcements

Related Resource: Addressing NCD Co-Morbidities: Shared Opportunities for Action [1]

Related Link: International Osteoporosis Foundation Website [2]

Source URL: <http://staging.ncdalliance.org/news-events/news/new-policy-brief-on-ncd-co-morbidities-spotlight-on-osteoporosis>

Links

[1] <http://staging.ncdalliance.org/resources/addressing-ncd-co-morbidities-shared-opportunities-for-action>

[2] <https://www.iofbonehealth.org>